FRONT LINES HAVE SPRINGTIME

By Fred S. Ferguson
United Press Staff Correspondent
With the American army in France
March 20—American troops in the Luneville region successfully raided enemy trenches late today after pulverizing the German defenses in an artillery preparation which shook buildings several miles in the rear. The raid was made at the conclusion of unusual heavy bombardment of the enemy. French artillery and infantry participated in the attacks.

For the first time in history a Secretary of War has reviewed American troops on foreign soil. Secretary Baker, General Pershing and staff generals stood on the brow of a great plateau and saw the regiments of the first division fresh from the trenches march by. Tin hatted and with field equipment the Sammies marched by with confidence and vigor. Men from those ranks were the first to give their lives in America's struggle against Germany. They withstood German raids and gas attacks. Per-singing briefly addressed the officers saying he was proud of their appearance which augured well for the army.

By William Phillips Simms
With the British Army in France, March 21—The Germans began a heavy bombardment at five o'clock this morning from a point just south of the Scarre river, the right flank of the British army south of St. Quentin.
At the same hour considerable fire was reported off the Messines sector.
At four o'clock this morning the enemy began a bombardment with gas shells of Fleurbaix and Armentieres.
This bombardment was still going on at six o'clock. On the whole of the British front cannons were rumbling but it was impossible to obtain details. As I concluded this dispatch the guns still belched fire and steel.
This the first day of Spring is somewhat foggy but promises fine.

CLAIMS DUSKY PALS GOT HIS COIN

A Polish miner who had dallied somewhat extensively with the cup that cheers, hunted up Chief of Police Easde last evening and told an incoherent story of being "frisked" of a considerable sum of money sometime during yesterday by a pair of colored men whom he made friends with while feeling excessively fraternal due to the excess of his potations.

The victim said his despoilers stood him on his head and while one fellow shook the money out of his pockets the other fellow gathered it up and after slapping him into a convenient ditch the two dark men beat it.

On account of his inability to express himself in English no description could be got of the alleged high-waymen beyond the fact that they were very big and very black.

THIRD STREET REPAVING

It does not look as though council will be able to have the deplorable conditions on Third street improved until after the war is over. The Pennsylvania railroad people claim their share of the proposed repaving would amount to $75,000 and that the government would not sanction such expense at this time.

However, the Borough Dads feel like making further effort to have some improvement made here this summer.

COAL PROFITEER IS FINED $500

By United Press
Erie, March 21—Harry Hamilton the first coal dealer arrested on charges of profiteering in that commodity was fined $500 in United States court here today. Judge Orr pronounced the sentence. Hamilton who was arrested in Butler was negotiating to sell coal to a Meadville concern at $3.25 a ton while the government price was $2.45.

GERMANY THREATENS HOLLAND

By United Press
Zurich, March 21—Holland must expect that submarine will blockade her port as the result of the taking over of the Dutch vessels by the allies and America, it was semi-officially stated in Berlin today. The Netherlands must be compelled to bear the consequences of her decision the Berlin advisers stated.

A NAVAL ACCIDENT KILLS FOUR MEN

(By United Press)
Washington, March 21—One officer and three enlisted men were killed and at least ten men injured when the U. S.
Destroyer Manley collided with a British man of war March 19, the Navy Department announced today. A depth charge on the Manley exploded when the collision occurred. Both vessels were damaged. The dead included Lieut. Command Richard Elliott, Jr., of New York City.

RISK INSURANCE A FINE THING

Washington, D. C., March 20—The importance of taking out War Risk insurance cannot be too strongly impressed upon the minds of enlisted men, say Marine Corps officials here, who cite the following death to substantiate their statements:
"Private Andrew Jensen, stationed in Cuba, took out $10,000 worth of War Risk Insurance on the morning of February 8, 1918, in favor of his mother Mrs. Margaret Jensen, 2018 Grande avenue, Everett, Washington.
He died 7:15 p. m., the same day.
His death was in the line of duty and was caused by the accidental discharge of a machine gun."

Time limits in which applications for insurance may be made has been extended to April 12, inclusive, for all officers and men in active service on October 15 last, according to orders issued to officers of the Marines.

46 DUTCH SHIPS TAKEN

(By United Press)
New York, March 21—Forty-six Dutch ships were added to America's fleet today when 350 naval reserves sent out from batteries took them in hand. Provisional officers in charge of the men placed aboard the ships ran up the Stars and Stripes immediately after boarding the ships. The Dutch colors were hauled down. The transfer was made with little ceremony. The provisional officers will remain in charge of the fleet until transfer to the Shipping Board is made.

WESTOVER STRIKE CALLED OFF BY TANNERY MEN

That long-drawn out Westover tannery strike has at last been settled and called off largely through the efforts of G. H. Planton, the A. F. of L. organizer of Westover. This has been one of the most stubborn and long-drawn out labor disputes to ever occur in Clearfield County and Mr.
Planton is to be congratulated on at last effecting a settlement, especially after the government mediators who took a hand at it failed.

Mr. Planton, who had been engaged at Altoona, went to Westover Monday night last and getting the men together had them call the strike off.
This action will clear up the situation amazingly at Westover and while a large number of the former employees do not intend to return to work at the tannery, but thus calling the strike off it will make it free for those who do want to go back and should restore that peace and quiet this former happy little village has so long stood in need of.

HORSE MEAT IS GETTING TO BE A POPULAR FOOD

By United Press
Washington, March 21—Horse meat is beginning to take a prominent place on America's food plate.

So great is the demand for this food introduced not very long in several American cities, that prices have jumped considerably.

In one western city the price of horse meat has risen from 9 cents a pound, the price several months ago, to 15 cents, according to reports to the food administration and the department of agriculture.

The sale of horse meat for human food consumption has been permitted in several western cities recently and the indications are that other cities will soon follow suit.

The popularity of horse meat, according to an official of the food administration, has increased, with the higher prices charged for other foods.

The popular aversion to horse meat is rapidly waning, this official asserts.
"Among the cities that have enacted ordinances permitting the sale of horse meat for table food are New York, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Grand Island, Nebraska, Portland, Oregon, and several others this official said."

"In these cities the ordinances provide for the sale of horse meat in stores where no other meats are sold.
The cheapness of the meat makes it accessible to the poor laborer whose wages do not keep up with the increase in the cost of living."

"Over a half a million horses are disabled from age and serious injuries each year. A great saving would be accomplished by using these for food purposes."

"Horse meat makes a tough, but sweet steak. Only popular sentiment prevents its wider consumption. I anticipate that, within a short time horse meat will be as common as ham and—"

TWO ENEMY SHIPS SUNK OFF DUNKIRK

(By United Press)
London, March 20—Two enemy destroyers and two enemy vessels are believed to have been sunk in action off Dunkirk, the British admiralty announced today. The German vessels were bombarding Dunkirk this morning when they were attacked by French and British naval forces. No allied vessels were sunk, although a British destroyer was damaged. Two British and three French destroyers participated in the engagement.

Dunkirk is on the west point about 25 miles west of the point where the west front lines join the North Sea and about 30 miles west of Ostend, the German naval base in Belgium.

SHAPLAN'S CABLE

Petrograd, March 20. (Night).— War Minister Trotsky addressing the Moscow Soviet today received the wildest applause when he plead for immediate creation of a large Russian army.

"According to foreign reports 200, 000 Austro-German prisoners are armed and ready to seize the trans-Siberia region," Trotsky said. "Japan is spreading these reports in order to have an excuse for her occupation in Siberia. I have no doubt but that the French Bourgeois would sell Russia if she would get Alace-Lorraine in return. Our army was destroyed in three years of war, unable to withstand the effects of the war with armies of other industrial developed countries. We must begin with a new army of 150,000 to create a new collecting military discipline under commanders of experience so that when the European Proletariat rises we will be able to say we are here."

Petrograd, March 20. (Night).— Serious differences have broken out between the Austrians and the Ukranian Rada regarding the division of territory, according to authoritative dispatches from Kiev received here today. The Austrian have demanded a portion of the province of Volin.

The Caucasian governing body is reported as having broken off peace negotiations with Turkey. German forces have been repulsed near Vorbask. A Russian telegraph agency at Vladivostok declared that a meeting in Petrograd, March 16, had been attended by Premier Kerensky, Kolchak, and Chinese and Japanese officials. Japanese representatives are said to have declared that the entire Bolshevik faction in Russia is demanding allied occupation of Siberia.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Clearfield borough having been called upon to suffer its first bereavement in the great world war now rending the nations of the earth, we feel that as a fitting tribute to the memory of our lately deceased citizen, Sergeant Harold P. Wilson all unnecessary work and business generally should be suspended during the time of the funeral of the valiant young man who has given his life for his country.

Therefore, I, John M. Chase, Burgess, of Clearfield, issue this proclamation calling upon the business places of the town to close Friday afternoon between the hours of 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock. During the passage of the funeral cortege through the streets to the cemetery I further ask that all pedestrians come to attention on the sidewalk and standing with bowed head offer a silent prayer for the soul of the deceased, and for the preservation of his comrades in the field and the triumphant success for the arms of the Nation in peace and gave his life for.

As a further tribute to Sergeant Wilson the flag on the borough building will remain at half mast for a period of ten days.

MANY OPINIONS GIVEN ON NEW STATE DOG LAW

Many inquiries asking for advice on certain features of the Dog law of 1917 are being received by Secretary of Agriculture Charles E. Patton who is charged with the enforcement of the law.

One Burgess ruled that as a borough ordinance forbid the shooting of firearms within the borough limits, no dogs could be shot.

Concerning this feature an opinion from the attorney general states:

"Under the police powers of the state the borough has the right to enact regulations for the peace, health, protection and morals of the community, which does not encroach upon the general powers of the state; but could not by municipal enactment prevent a sworn officer of the law from enforcing a statutory provision of the state."

"On the point in question Section 18 of the dog law provides:

"It shall be the duty of every officer to kill any dog which does not bear a proper license tag which is found running at large."

"In Section 20 of the same law a penalty upon failure of the officer to perform his duty as above is imposed.
Such officer, then, by statutory enactment has certain defined duties which he must perform and upon failure he is subjected to a penalty.
Therefore he can and may perform his duty as required without violating any municipal ordinance or enactment, though such enactment might otherwise provide."

"While a borough may prohibit the shooting of firearms within the borough limits, no such ordinance was ever intended to prohibit the regularly constituted peace officers from discharging firearms in case of riot, insurrection, disturbance of the peace, enforcement of the law, or in making arrests, but in its application has particular reference to reckless or promiscuous shooting of firearms."

In one county the commissioners were advised that the county treasurer could not issue a license unless the owner made application for license before the fifteenth of January.

An opinion from the attorney general's office clears this situation and shows that licenses may be granted at any time. The opinion states:

"It is clear and positive that one of the principal objects of this act is to require the licensing of all dogs."

"On and after the 15th day of January, 1918 it shall be unlawful for any person to own or keep any dog six months, old or over unless such dog is licensed by the treasurer of the county in which the dog is kept." (Section 17)

"This is obvious and as the county treasurer issues the license upon application, there is no other method to be followed. The legislature intended that all dogs over a certain age should be registered and licensed and penalty is fixed for a non-performance of duty."

"There is contained in the act no express or implied prohibition from the granting of licenses upon proper application and it is the opinion of this department that county treasurers must continue the issuance of licenses upon application without regard to the failure of the applicant to make the said application on or before January 15th; and the owner, therefore, who failed to make application before that date can do so afterwards and obtain the necessary license."

FEDERAL AGENT TAKES ALIEN TO PITTSBURGH

One Of Trio Arrested At Cur-wensville Now On Way To

REFUSED TO BE REGISTERED

Deputy United States Marshal Harrington, of Pittsburgh, came to Clearfield last evening for the purpose of taking Ernest Mayer, alias John Olson back to Pittsburgh for examination with the idea of having the man finally transported to a detention camp for interment during the war as a dangerous enemy alien.

Olson or Mayer is one of the three enemy aliens arrested at Curwens-ville January 4th last and placed in jail. The three men had been employed in the Curwensville brick yard. On enemy alien registration day Mayer's two companions expressed a willingness to register and behave themselves properly if allowed to go to work but Mayer was pure "hog ditch" and expressed his contempt for America and American institutions and demanded deportment to Germany. He will be sent to one of the southern detention camps.

While here Marshal Harrington also interviewed Carl Kasten, recently arrested at DuBois, and B. Germayne, who was taken into custody while photographing railroad bridges and connections, coal mines, etc., along the Bell's Gap railroad and at Coal-port. These men are rabidly pro-German and are being held in Fort Gorman for investigation. Germayne is charged with seditious remarks against the government and had many photographs and letters and papers in his effects when arrested by Constables Allen Straw of Ironva and Anson Peacock of Coalport.

A SMILAGE PARTY

Last evening a very joyous and unique entertainment was given by Mrs. McGill at her home in South Fifth street in honor of four young men expecting to be called away soon into service for Uncle Sam. "Smil-age at Home" was the theme of the evening. The guests assembled at 6:30 and were ushered to the dining-room where they partook of a five course banquet. The food was daintily served and thoroughly delicious—nor was the spice of glowing conversation lacking, except during the violin selections played by Miss Regina and Master Joseph Malloy two of Clearfield's talented young musicians. At the close of the banquet various members of the party were called upon for impromptu speeches, the last number on this after-dinner program being the extemporaneous production of a modern novel, to which all were allowed to contribute.
A number of wit-taxing and mirth-provoking games in the living room concluded the evenings' festivities.

The four guests of honor were Messrs. De Forrest Truman, Mark Lansberry, Theodore Pischke, and V.
C. Frenberg; and doubtless the embroidered soldiers have stored one morthing in their memories which will help keep them happy during days to come in camp or trench.

GERMANY NEEDS COAL VERY BADLY

Soldiers Are Given Leave to go Home Only Once a Year to

A BLOW TO MORALE OF MEN

By Henry Wood
With the French Armies, Feb. 16—
By Mail—The coal crisis in Germany this winter has reached such an acute seriousness, that the Imperial German command has found it necessary to cut down to the minimum limit the permission for soldiers at the front to visit their families in the interior in order to decrease the railway traffic.

That the coal shortage is as great as to threaten the outcome of the war is admitted in an order issued by Grand Quarter Master General Cydendorff copies of which have just been taken from German prisoners captured by the French.

Under these new orders issued by Ludendorff it is impossible for a German soldier to secure a "permission" to visit his home and family at the rear, and conversely that nothing is more damaging to the fighting morale than to have these "permissions" curtailed.
In the French army at the present time, the "poulu" has his "permission" every four months and special trains carry him to and from his home.

According to accurate calculation, this order, permitting leaves of absence to only 3 to 5 per cent. of the German troops at a time, means that each soldier can have a home visit only once a year.

FORESIGHT OF DRIVER SAVED TOTS' LIVES

Whenever an automobile driver hits a pedestrian we always hear of the affair and the resultant "blame" is generally placed the blame—rightly or otherwise—upon the shoulders of the "poor devil" driving the car. The many times the same malicious driver may have succeeded in avoiding an accident that would have been directly chargeable to the person injured never appears to get in print or is given public notice. It is the purpose of this little article to reverse this order in just one case and give honor where honor is due.

A serious and perhaps fatal accident was narrowly averted on Daley street yesterday afternoon only by the vigilance, presence of mind and prompt action of Curtis Wentz, driver of one of the Fulington jitney buses. As his bus was making one of its regular trips down Daley street yesterday afternoon two kids waited on the curb near the corner of Eighth street and just as the big bus reached them darted out into the street to cross to the other side.

The driver saw the children as he approached and thought they were waiting until he could get by, but was horrified to see them dart out right in the way of the oncoming machine. It was then too late to sound a warning or even hope to escape a calamity, but with a wrench at the wheel he slid the front wheels across the brick and ran his car over the curb across the walk into the terrace wall in front of the Kennedy property at that point.

It was a nerve-racking experience and eye-witnesses to the near-accident, all of whom were loud in their praises of the excellent judgment and prompt action of the driver.

Parents should impress upon their children the danger of running across the street directly in the path of oncoming automobiles and thus assist in averting a possible tragedy.

DAILY
WAR
REVIEW

By J. W. T. Mason
Written for the United Press
New York, March 20.—Efforts by the Germans to tempt the western Allies into starting a premature major offensive this spring have begun.

The Germans themselves have ceased to engage in extensive raids. They are abandoning occasional trench positions and are not making a strenuous defense against French and British and American raiders. By these tactics the German general staff must hope to create the impression that the German morale is giving way and that an early spring drive by the Allies would meet with large success.

In reality, von Hindenburg realizes that impudence to deliver this year's blow against the German west front might, indeed, result in no more than a moderate victory for the allies not worth the cost. For the first time since the war began the western Allies are in a position through the supreme war council at Versailles, to strike together against the Germans.
This co-ordination if properly used ought to give the Allies an enormous advantage. But, it will be thrown away if an impatient demand arises to strike at the Germans before everything is ready.

There is no advantage in trying to outpace the Germans. The initiative at the west front is now passing into the hands of America, France and Great Britain. It is they who are in the real position to force events whenever they desire. It is believed von Hindenburg knows his and he is trying to tempt the Allies into moving before they have made full preparations.

It is impossible to believe that the generals in the field can be fooled by any such situation. But, public opinion at home must be taken into consideration in determining problems of major strategy. The time has come therefore with the beginning of spring, when home opinion should guard itself against falling into the snare of impatience. Public opinion in democracies, sometimes has force.
Army commanders into terrible blunders. The home morale is now of vital importance. It should not show uneasiness at delays in attack which may be necessary to make victory certain at the end.

KENYON MAY BE UNOFTENSED

Des Moines, Ia., March 21.—"Who's Who" in the Democratic line-up for State, congressional and other offices to be filled at the coming election, is expected to be pretty well determined at the state conference in this city today. Because of Senator William S.
Kenyon's patriotic support of the national administration, the Democratic State Central committee has decided to recommend that no candidate be placed in the field against him.

DO YOU RIDE THE BUMPS?

Do you ride all the bumps of the war news from day to day? Many good patriots do. Each morning brings its passing changes in the wa-situation; now gloom in the form of a setback on the western front, or further disintegration in Russia, or rumors of delay in our own war preparations. Next morning, like as not there will be something of a hopeful nature, such as the checking of the Huns' drive in Italy, or a raid by the British or French, or good news heard at home.

To follow and feel all these glows and glooms from day to day is human and exciting.

But it involves much useless wear and tear of the spirit.

There is another viewpoint—that of disregarding the daily shifts and changes in the war situation, keeping one's attention concentrated on the long haul of war and the final result.

That haul is still a long one. For Germany is not beaten yet, but the results are sure, because we have right on our side, and also the largest battalions. If you grow warm and then cold, and alternate between enthusiasm and depression with the daily news changes, you not only waste your energy, but are likely to fluster-ate in your policy as a business man and your determination as a patriot.

The good resolution to save food, support Uncle Sam financially and cheerfully, adjust your business and habits to the war program will be stiffened on the morning that you read about some Hun atrocity against our own soldiers in France. But in a week there may be news of a different character, which leads you to let down a little, on the assumption that Germany has begun to crack and that the war is about over.

It is good business, good patriotism and good conservation to forget most of the headlines in the morning paper and concentrate strictly upon the long, hard grind between today and the final result. That will save your spirit, buck up your resolution, and enable you to do your utmost in winning the war.

Moreover, it will enable you to get out of the war, as a business man and a patriot, the utmost benefit from war adjustments. Those adjustments make for wiser and more economical personal habits, as well as a business grounded in sound economy.

Even should peace come tomorrow you can never go back to the old headless wasteful ways either in business or livelihood.

Don't ride the bumps of the war news!

Settle down in harness for the long grim haul that counts!

PERFECT ORGANIZATION TO SELL LIBERTY BONDS

Experts in Various Lines Are at Work in Philadelphia Headquarters.

The organization for handling the forthcoming Liberty Loan in the Third Federal Reserve District has been completed. Philadelphia is the headquarters for this district, which embraces Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and all of Delaware.

The Women's Committee also has headquarters in Philadelphia, under the supervision of Mrs. James Starr, Jr.

This organization already is marked by some revolutionary departures from former systems. The changes incorporate a more gigantic program for securing publicity, and a system for securing orders for bonds which will greatly facilitate the work for the banks and will make it possible to handle a much greater number of subscriptions in a limited time.

In Mr. Parsons' office are maps of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, divided into sub-districts by heavy blue lines. The areas thus enclose represent more than fifty districts, which come under the supervision of the Philadelphia headquarters. In most cases the districts are counties, but in some cases a district takes in more than one county, while in others a county is divided into two or more districts. On the maps are various printed cards bearing the names of the local chairmen, the amount of money subscribed for each district in the last loan, the quota for the coming loan and other information.

There is a generous sprinkling of red-headed ticks all over the maps, signifying localities where banks will handle subscriptions for local county organizations. The charts show at a glance the make-up of the various committees and the descriptions of their work. That chart for the regular district organization shows at the top, in a square, the words "Treasury Department," indicating the fountain source of all the work of the loan. Beneath this comes the Federal Reserve Bank, next the Central Committee, and then the Director. The chart shows that associated with the Director is an Advisory Committee, and underneath are various committees, the work of which interlocks.

While the Women's Committee reports directly to the Treasury Department, there is a close working arrangement between it and the office of Director Parsons. The separate chart for the Women's Committee shows, beneath the square for the Treasury Department, the chairman of the women's organization, who is Mrs. James Starr, Jr. There also is an Advisory Board, then an Executive Committee and various sub-committees. Mrs.
Walter S. Thompson is in charge of the work in Philadelphia.

Mr. Parsons, in announcing his tentative organization, said:

"It is our desire to have our organization throughout the entire Third Federal Reserve District so perfected that in the campaign for the placing of the Loan, each worker will know his duties and be able to work at 100 per cent efficiency from the first day of the campaign. It is the thought at Washington that by having this permanent organization, which will in a way hold together the volunteer sales organization, the concentrated drive will be conducted smoothly and systematically, and far better results will be accomplished."

DIRECTOR PARSONS
TELLS WHY THE LOAN
WILL BE SUCCESSFUL

LEWIS H. PARSONS.

Lewis H. Parsons, director of the Liberty Loan for the Third Federal Reserve District, gave out the following statement from his office in the Lincoln Building, Philadelphia:

"We are ready to go 'over the top' and make a killing for the Loan. In our trenches and back of our lines great preparations for the big drive are under way.

"Success is sure, but it will not come easily. All good Americans must apply themselves to the task of helping to raise this money as they never before have applied themselves to anything. The government needs the help of every individual now more than ever before. There must be no slackers. No one should depend upon some one else to make up his share.
Every one must do something.

"The first thing we should all get firmly implanted in our minds is the seriousness of the situation. We are fighting a most powerful war machine.
To overcome it, we must make almost superhuman efforts. And we cannot do this great task at all without money. That is the first need. So everyone who is not fighting with his hands must fight with his money—that is, must buy Liberty Bonds.

"Nothing could do the government more harm than the peace talk which we hear, and even see printed, on all sides. The time to talk and think of peace is after we are victorious. Our government is preparing for a long and bitter war. The only way to shorten it is to supply the money now.
So that we may have the equipment for our soldiers, the ships and food and all these things which are necessary to win.

"This is a great, patriotic opportunity for all of us to pull together and show the rest of the world how American can rise to a situation. We must put into bonds all the money we can spare. Even if we have not the ready money, but have credit, we should use our credit to raise money with which to buy bonds. The way to do this is to borrow money in the bank. If it seems in any way to raise money now, let us first consider the possibility of a debt. That would mean paying over to an autocratic power whatever that power saw fit to exact of us. Surely there is a decided difference between doing that and lending our money now to Uncle Sam at a good rate of interest. I know the people will wake up to the situation, and that is why I am sure the third Liberty Loan drive will be a great success."

AND THE HUNS SANG

In a war book written about the engagements around Malines and Campegnhout appears this incident:

A child of two came into the street as eight drunken soldiers were marching by. A man in the second file stepped aside and drove his bayonet into the child's stomach. He lifted the child into the air on his bayonet and carried it away, he and his companions still singing. The child screamed when the soldier struck it with his bayonet, but not afterwards.

Commenting upon the incident, Bruce Barton, editor of Every Week, writes:

"I do not often ask you to read unpleasant paragraphs. I do it now because, when it comes to writing about Liberty Bonds, I feel like throwing aside all the fine words and telling you the whole truth as it appeals to me.

"And the truth is that I am not buying a nickel's worth of bonds to give Trieste to Italy or one single additional colony to England or Alsace-Lorraine to France.

"I buy Liberty Bonds because there is a two-year-old boy in my home—as there was in that nameless home in Malines.

"And because—so small has the world become—Malines is only just across the street from where I live.

"Prices are high. It is hard these days for a man with even a good income to buy food and clothes for his family.

"But I ask myself over and over again, what good to my youngsters are food and clothes, if the spirit that fired Malines comes out of this war unbroken?

"What sort of parents are you and I if we take care of the minor matters, such as food and clothes, and send our children out into a world where children may still be bayoneted and women ruthlessly slain?

"So long as they who bayoneted the child of Malines go singing through the streets of Belgium, there must be Liberty Bonds.

"So long as the terror that stalked through Campegnhout continues to hang over my house, there must be Liberty Bonds.

"I do not know how it may be with you; but with me, this third Liberty Loan cuts down through the luxuries into what we used to think were necessaries in our household.

"And we make the sacrifice gladly,
for the sake of the great necessity.

The following are culled from a series of slogans submitted by the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World:

If you know anything Germany would like to know, let this be your speechless day.

Keep your eyes peeled, your heart stepped, your lips sealed—don't talk.
Your little private may lose a battle.
Don't tell all you know.

One German army has already occupied America—the invisible host of spies is everywhere. Don't talk.

Swat the fly. Spot the spy. Spies lead upon little crumbs of conversation. Little glances of observation.
Starve them out.

Don't tell all you know to people you don't.

Keep your eyes open. Report suspicious persons who ask curious questions. There are many ways to spy whose papers exposed themselves. Announce. Keep a sharp lookout!

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At a regular meeting of Washington Camp No. 588 P. O. S. of A., of Olanta the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas It has pleased God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our order so soon after uniting our worthy brother Russell Levine, he it therefore

Resolved We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family of the deceased brother in their bereavement and that they be commended to trust in the divine Father who looketh down with mercy upon all who believe in him.

Resolved That a good man never lives in vain but leave behind him a living example of good deeds and kindly acts to his fellow men.

Resolved That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our order and that they be published in two county papers and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family; and that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

When Itching Stops

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin.

Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

A little zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

CAUTION NOTICE

Whereas, my wife Elmira Long having left my bed and board without just cause or provocation I hereby give notice to all persons not to harbor or trust her on my account, as I will pay no bills of her contracting unless compelled to do so by due process of law.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Ah! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, rattling, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief.
Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

We've Never Shown As Pretty Dress Gingham
At 25 Cents The Yard

When Miss Curley bought these gingham she said, "We'll show some of the prettiest dress gingham this spring we've ever shown—scarcity or no scarcity, they're beautiful!"

Well, the gingham came and Miss Curley's judgment couldn't be questioned. Every piece—the plain colors; the stripe effects; the pretty plaids in red and blue, lavender and white and a host of other color combinations—reflects the brightness of spring. These early showings are made for the special service of the home dressmaker. You can make your purchases now and do your sewing during your spare hours before the real warm weather comes.

FARMER BULWARK OF THE NATION

Man Behind the Plow Never Falls in Emergency.

BIG BUYER OF LIBERTY BONDS

Takes His Time to Think It Over,
Then Gets to Work in Earnest.

Now, as in every grave emergency through which the nation has passed, the farmer looms large as the bulwark of the nation.

It is realized on all sides that the source of wealth, and the good old-time respect for our national institutions and our national integrity, must come, as they have always come in the past, from the soil.

In the days of ancient Rome, when the very life of the republic was at stake, Cincinnatus left his plough, placed himself at the head of the army, and, after winning victory, calmly returned to his rustic pursuits.

It is stated officially by persons in authority in the third Liberty Loan campaign that the rural districts are expected to subscribe to more bonds, in proportion to population, than the urban districts. This is said as the results of preliminary reports received from district chairmen. These reports show that the farmers have made excellent profits during the last season, that they have saved their money, and that they are in a mood to put it where it will do the most good—into Liberty Bonds.

There is, after all, a distinct difference between the resident of the farming district and the city resident. The city man is used to spending his money as fast as he makes it. He looks after his immediate wants first and then thinks of the rainy day. The farmer thinks of the future first of all. He knows that his money has been earned by the sweat of his brow and that he has none to spend foolishly. And, too, he is so close to nature and solitude that he has time to think of the more serious things of life. Thus the peril that the government faces is much more real to the farmer than it is to the average city dweller, because he knows it affects his home and fields and very life, and is not merely a headliner in the paper to be forgotten as soon as read.

In the Revolutionary war and in the Civil war, success would not have been impossible if the farmer had not come forward, not only with recruits and crops, but with his hard-earned and ungrudgingly offered money. There will not be any exception now. It is a case of the tiler of the soil rising in his might against the predatory powers which would violate the home and make a joke of the home ties and traditions.

When the third Liberty Loan was being talked of, it was assumed that the campaign would begin on the first of March. But the date was deferred until the sixth of April. Few persons know why this was so. But one of the principal causes was the farmer. It was felt that he would appreciate having the loan drive occur after the weather had cleared up. This would make it possible to have meetings in the farming sections, to send speakers to get the folks together and give them the same advantages as the city folks enjoy in any large undertaking.

Watch the farmers. They have the money to spend. They know exactly why it should be spent to aid the government. And they are, as a class, so imbued with the patriotic spirit, that their showing in the Loan is bound to be sensational.

WHAT BONDS WILL BUY

Every $100 Liberty Bond will furnish one six-inch shell, one rifle, thirteen gas masks and two hand grenades. Put a $100 in a Bond and send "the goods" to our Boys!

Four $100 Bonds will buy a machine gun. Thousands of such guns are needed to stop the Big Hun Drive! Do your bit with your Bond!

A five-ton truck costs Uncle Sam $5000. Pile up the Bonds and buy your spoke in the wheel!

SPORTSMEN ATTENTION!

A meeting of all hunters and sportsmen generally will be held in the Arbitration room Friday evening, March 22nd, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of hearing reports on the matter of the killing of dogs running deer on the mountains north of town, from the committee appointed at the recent meeting to take up the matter of securing Ringneck pheasants and eggs for propagating purposes in the county and for the further purpose of having a game warden appointed for Clearfield county.

The committee appointed to secure pheasants got into communication with the State Game Commission and received a letter from Secretary Kalbfus yesterday afternoon in which he agrees to furnish ten pairs of birds and two hundred eggs just as soon as the names of persons who will agree to receive and take care of same is supplied him.

This meeting is called for the purpose of finding places to locate these birds and all interested are requested to attend this meeting.

The matter of the selection of a Game Warden for Clearfield county is an important one and will also be acted upon at this meeting and all hunters are requested to be present and have their say on this subject.

Every day you clean the house you line in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul, lives in also becomes filthy up each twenty-four hours with all manner of fifth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

WESLEY LANSBERRY TAKES A BRIDE

Wesley Lansberry, the West Side drayman, and Miss Gladys Dixon, the well known trained nurse, of East End, are receiving congratulations from their host of warm friends on their marriage which took place at Washington, D. C., on Thursday, March 14th, by Rev. Harry Mitchell, a Methodist pastor of the capital city. The happy couple were married at the home of Miss Gertrude Dixon, sister of the bride, who had been living in Washington for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Lansberry spent the intervening two days sightseeing in and about the national capital and on the Saturday following were present at the marriage of Miss Gertrude Dixon to Mr. Glenn Rankin, of Indiana, which second wedding ceremony was also performed by Rev. Harry Mitchell. The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dixon of East End and possess a host of warm friends in Clearfield who with both couples a long life of happiness together. Mr. and Mrs. Lansberry returned home Sunday evening and are "at home" at their home on Merrill street. The Progress joins in congratulations.

Stylish Coats and Suits

There Is So Much Satisfaction in Choosing Your Suit With So Many Styles Before You

It is said that there are some 3,000 suit manufacturers in New York City alone. Yet it is a fact that most merchants in smaller towns and cities buy from a single manufacturer to simplify ordering and to take up less of their time in the collection of their stocks when in the market. The great objection to this, of course, is that their customers are offered the fashion trend as it is seen by a SINGLE designer; many other fashions are overlooked.

Our buyers on their Spring trip inspected the full lines of some fifty of the best reputed suit manufacturers. No wonder some women have actually complained that there are so many pretty styles here it's hard to determine on which is MOST BECOMING.

Serge Suits at $27.50—Remarkable Values

Here are suits that point out the advantage of not confining our market; in our search we located a line of serge suits at $27.50 that are unquestionably the peers of others selling at a higher price. As often happens, this particular manufacturer could offer us something unusual at this low price; others excelled him in suits of a different nature. Full silk lined; excellently made.

Maybe There Are Prettier Coats, But They Can't Be Found In The Fashion Magazines

Spring coats are not like they used to be—far from it! There is none of that stiffness and plainness that becomes a bore to the youthful woman. Here are coats that actually seem to breathe forth Springtime. Colors are beautiful—styles striking. In a word, such as you will "fall in love" with at first sight.

An Excellent Showing of Coats at $19.75

Materials are serges, tweeds, coverts and velours as well as others; set off in a host of ways. Some through the manner of their own designs. Excellent workmanship from beginning to end.

Store Editorials

Progress of This Store Interfering With The War Is Not

Though there have been called to the colors, many thousands of young men from factory and farm, and though some manufacturers have turned the entire product of their factories over to the government, we are maintaining the completeness of our stocks and our value-giving reputation by searching the markets carefully and by selecting the kind of goods demanded by this store's clientele. Next week means another lap in the course of the new season. We are steady on our own, straight road that will bring utmost satisfaction to every one of our friends.

FRONT LINES HAVE SPRINGTIME

By Fred S. Ferguson
United Press Staff Correspondent
With the American army in France
March 20—American troops in the Lunenburg region successfully raided enemy trenches late today after pulverizing the German defenses in an artillery preparation which shook buildings several miles in the rear. The raid was made at the conclusion of unusual heavy bombardment of the enemy. French artillery and infantry participated in the attacks.

For the first time in history a Secretary of War has reviewed American troops on foreign soil. Secretary Baker, General Pershing and staff generals stood on the brow of a great plateau and saw the regiments of the first division fresh from the trenches march by. Tin hatted and with field equipment the Sammies marched with confidence and vigor. Men from those ranks were the first to give their lives in America's struggle against Germany. They withstood German raids and gas attacks. Pershing briefly addressed the officers saying he was proud of their appearance which augured well for the army.

With the British Army in France,
March 21—The Germans began a heavy bombardment at five o'clock this morning from a point just south of the Scarre river, the right flank of the British army south of St. Quentin. At the same hour considerable fire was reported off the Messines sector. At four o'clock this morning the enemy began a bombardment with gas shells of Fleurbaix and Armentieres. This bombardment was still going on at six o'clock. On the whole of the British front cannons were rumbling but it was impossible to obtain details. As I concluded this dispatch the guns still belched fire and steel. This the first day of Spring is somewhat foggy but promises fine.

CLAIMS DUSKY PALS GOT HIS COIN

A Polish miner who had dallied somewhat extensively with the cup that cheers, hunted up Chief of Police Esado last evening and told an incoherent story of being "frisked" of a considerable sum of money sometime during yesterday by a pair of colored men whom he made friends with while feeling excessively fraternal due to the excess of his potatoes.

The victim said his despoilers stood him on his head and while one fellow shook the money out of his pockets the other fellow gathered it up and after slapping him into a convenient ditch the two dark men beat it.

It does not look as though council will be able to have the deplorable conditions on Third street improved until after the war is over. The Pennsylvania railroad people claim their share of the proposed repaving would amount to $75,000 and that the government would not sanction such expense at this time.

However, the Borough Dads feel like making further effort to have some improvement made here this summer.

Hamilton who was arrested in Butler was negotiating to sell coal to a Meadville concern at $3.25 a ton while the government price was $2.45.

GERMANY THREATENS HOLLAND

By United Press
Zurich, March 21—Holland must expect that submarine will blockade her port as the result of the taking over of the Dutch vessels by the allies and America, it was semi-officially stated in Berlin today. The Netherlands must be compelled to bear the consequences of her decision the Berlin advices stated.

A NAVAL ACCIDENT KILLS FOUR MEN

(By United Press)
Washington, March 21—One officer and three enlisted men were killed and at least ten men injured when the U. S. Destroyer Manley collided with a British man of war March 19, the Navy Department announced today. A depth charge on the Manley exploded when the collision occurred. Both vessels were damaged. The dead included Lieut. Command Richard El-Hott, Jr., of New York City.

RISK INSURANCE A FINE THING

Washington, D. C., March 20—The importance of taking out War Risk insurance cannot be too strongly impressed upon the minds of enlisted men, say Marine Corps officials here, who cite the following death to substantiate their statements:

"Private Andrew Jensen, stationed in Cuba, took out $10,000 worth of War Risk Insurance on the morning of February 8, 1918, in favor of his mother Mrs. Margaret Jensen, 2018 Grande avenue, Everett, Washington. He died 7:15 p. m., the same day. His death was in the line of duty and was caused by the accidental discharge of a machine gun."

Time limits in which applications for insurance may be made has been extended to April 12, inclusive, for all officers and men in active service on October 15 last, according to orders issued to officers of the Marines.

46 DUTCH SHIPS TAKEN

(By United Press)
New York, March 21—Forty-six Dutch ships were added to America's fleet today when 350 naval reserves sent out from batteries took them in hand. Provisional officers in charge of the men placed aboard the ships ran up the Stars and Stripes immediately after boarding the ships. The Dutch colors were hauled down. The transfer was made with little ceremony. The provisional officers will remain in charge of the fleet until transfer to the Shipping Board is made.

That long-drawn out Westover tannery strike has at last been settled and called off largely through the efforts of G. H. Planton, the A. F. of L. organizer of Westover. This has been one of the most stubborn and long-drawn out labor disputes to ever occur in Clearfield County and Mr. Planton is to be congratulated on at last effecting a settlement, especially after the government mediators who took a hand at it failed.

Mr. Planton, who had been engaged at Altoona, went to Westover Monday night last and getting the men together had them call the strike off. This action will clear up the situation amazingly at Westover and while a large number of the former employees do not intend to return to work at the tannery, but thus calling the strike off it will make it free for those who do want to go back and should restore that peace and quiet this former happy little village has so long stood in need of.

HORSE MEAT IS GETTING TO BE A POPULAR FOOD

By United Press
Washington, March 21—Horse meat is beginning to take a prominent place on America's food plate.

So great is the demand for this food introduced not very long in several American cities, that prices have jumped considerably.

In one western city the price of horse meat has risen from 9 cents a pound, the price several months ago, to 15 cents, according to reports to the food administration and the department of agriculture.

The sale of horse meat for human food consumption has been permitted in several western cities recently and the indications are that other cities will soon follow suit.

The popularity of horse meat, according to an official of the food administration, has increased, with the higher prices charged for other foods. The popular aversion to horse meat is rapidly waning, this official asserts.

"Among the cities that have enacted ordinances permitting the sale of horse meat for table food are New York, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Grand Island, Nebraska, Portland, Oregon, and several others this official said."

"In these cities the ordinances provide for the sale of horse meat in stores where no other meats are sold. The cheapness of the meat makes it accessible to the poor laborer whose wages do not keep up with the increase in the cost of living."

"Over a half a million horses are disabled from age and serious injuries each year. A great saving would be accomplished by using these for food purposes."

"Horse meat makes a tough, but sweet steak. Only popular sentiment prevents its wider consumption. I anticipate that, within a short time horse meat will be as common as ham and—"

(By United Press)
London, March 20—Two enemy destroyers and two enemy vessels are believed to have been sunk in action off Dunkirk, the British admiralty announced today. The German vessels were bombarding Dunkirk this morning when they were attacked by French and British naval forces. No allied vessels were sunk, although a British destroyer was damaged. Two British and three French destroyers participated in the engagement.

Dunkirk is on the west point about 25 miles west of the point where the west front lines join the North Sea and about 30 miles west of Ostend, the German naval base in Belgium.

Petrograd, March 20. (Night).—War Minister Trotsky addressing the Moscow Soviet today received the wildest applause when he plead for immediate creation of a large Russian army.

"According to foreign reports 200,000 Austro-German prisoners are armed and ready to seize the trans-Siberia region," Trotsky said. "Japan is spreading these reports in order to have an excuse for her occupation in Siberia. I have no doubt but that the French Bourgeois would sell Russia if she would get Alace-Lorraine in return. Our army was destroyed in three years of war, unable to withstand the effects of the war with armies of other industrial developed countries. We must begin with a new army of 150,000 to create a new collecting military discipline under commanders of experience so that when the European Proletariat rises we will be able to say we are here."

Petrograd, March 20. (Night).—Serious differences have broken out between the Austrians and the Ukrainians regarding the division of territory, according to authoritative dispatches from Kiev received here today. The Austrian have demanded a portion of the province of Volin.

The Caucasian governing body is reported as having broken off peace negotiations with Turkey. German forces have been repulsed near Vorbas. A Russian telegraph agency at Vladivostok declared that a meeting in Petrograd, March 16, had been attended by Former Premier Kornysky, Kolchak, and Chinese and Japanese officials. Japanese representatives are said to have declared that the entire Bolshevik faction in Russia is demanding allied occupation of Siberia.

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, Clearfield borough having been called upon to suffer its first bereavement in the great world war now rending the nations of the earth, we feel that as a fitting tribute to the memory of our lately deceased citizen, Sergeant Harold P. Wilson all unnecessary work and business generally should be suspended during the time of the funeral of the valiant young man who has given his life for his country.

Therefore, I, John M. Chase, Burgess, of Clearfield, issue this proclamation calling upon the business places of the town to close Friday afternoon between the hours of 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock. During the passage of the funeral cortege through the streets to the cemetery I further ask that all pedestrians come to attention on the sidewalk and standing with bowed head offer a silent prayer for the soul of the deceased, and for the preservation of his comrades in the field and the triumphant success for the arms of the Nation in peace and gave his life for.

As a further tribute to Sergeant Wilson the flag on the borough building will remain at half mast for a period of ten days.

HOME ON FURLOUGH

Bruce Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wallace, who has been a student at the government aeronautical school at the Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, Ga., following his transfer from the Kelly Field at San Antonio, Texas, is home on a short furlough. Bruce is one of a large class of student aviators, who have just passed the final examination for a commission in the aviation service and is home pending the result of the exams. He expects to land a Second Lieutenant.

OUR AERIAL PROGRESS

Washington, March 21—The United States by the last of August will have completed more than double the number of battle planes for use than that of Germany, England and France, aviation officers declared today. While the work has not come up to the original schedule, officials saw a vast amount of work has been done.

MANY OPINIONS GIVEN ON NEW STATE DOG LAW

Many inquiries asking for advice on certain features of the Dog Law of 1917 are being received by Secretary of Agriculture Charles E. Patton who is charged with the enforcement of the law.

One Burgess ruled that as a borough ordinance forbid the shooting of firearms within the borough limits, no dogs could be shot.

Concerning this feature an opinion from the attorney general states:

"Under the police powers of the state the borough has the right to enact regulations for the peace, health, protection and morals of the community, which does not encroach upon the general powers of the state; but could not by municipal enactment prevent a sworn officer of the law from enforcing a statutory provision of the state."

"On the point in question Section 18 of the dog law provides:

"It shall be the duty of every officer to kill any dog which does not bear a proper license tag which is found running at large."

"In Section 20 of the same law a penalty upon failure of the officer to perform his duty as above is imposed. Such officer, then, by statutory enactment has certain defined duties which he must perform and upon failure he is subjected to a penalty. Therefore he can and may perform his duty as required without violating any municipal ordinance or enactment, though such enactment might otherwise provide."

"While a borough may prohibit the shooting of firearms within the borough limits, no such ordinance was ever intended to prohibit the regularly constituted peace officers from discharging firearms in case of riot, insurrection, disturbance of the peace, enforcement of the law, or in making arrests, but in its application has particular reference to reckless or promiscuous shooting of firearms."

In one county the commissioners were advised that the county treasurer could not issue a license unless the owner made application for license before the fifteenth of January.

An opinion from the attorney general's office clears this situation and shows that licenses may be granted at any time. The opinion states:

"It is clear and positive that one of the principal objects of this act is to require the licensing of all dogs."

"On and after the 15th day of January, 1918 it shall be unlawful for any person to own or keep any dog six months, old or over unless such dog is licensed by the treasurer of the county in which the dog is kept." (Section 17)

"This is obvious and as the county treasurer issues the license upon application, there is no other method to be followed. The legislature intended that all dogs over a certain age should be registered and licensed and penalty is fixed for a non-performance of duty."

"There is contained in the act no express or implied prohibition from the granting of licenses upon proper application and it is the opinion of this department that county treasurers must continue the issuance of licenses upon application without regard to the failure of the applicant to make the said application on or before January 15th; and the owner, therefore, who failed to make application before that date can do so afterwards and obtain the necessary license."

POSITION UNCHANGED

Washington, March 21—The United States' decision toward Russia is unchanged. This government still regards her as an associate of a belligerent in the war. This was said officially today in an informal State Department discussion of Trotsky's reported request for aid in the reorganization of a voluntary Slav army.

FEDERAL AGENT TAKES ALIEN TO PITTSBURGH

One Of Trio Arrested At Curwensville Now On Way To

Deputy United States Marshal Harrington, of Pittsburgh, came to Clearfield last evening for the purpose of taking Ernest Mayer, alias John Olson back to Pittsburgh for examination with the idea of having the man finally transported to a detention camp for interment during the war as a dangerous enemy alien.

Olson or Mayer is one of the three enemy aliens arrested at Curwensville January 4th last and placed in jail. The three men had been employed in the Curwensville brick yard. On enemy alien registration day Mayer's two companions expressed a willingness to register and behave themselves properly if allowed to go to work but Mayer was pure "hog ditch" and expressed his contempt for America and American institutions and demanded deportment to Germany. He will be sent to one of the southern detention camps.

While here Marshal Harrington also interviewed Carl Kasten, recently arrested at DuBois, and B. Germayne, who was taken into custody while photographing railroad bridges and connections, coal mines, etc., along the Bell's Gap railroad and at Coalport. These men are rabidly pro-German and are being held in Fort German for investigation. Germayne is charged with seditious remarks against the government and had many photographs and letters and papers in his effects when arrested by Constables Allen Straw of Ironva and Aaron Peacock of Coalport.

A SMILAGE PARTY

Last evening a very joyous and unique entertainment was given by Mrs. McGill at her home in South Fifth street in honor of four young men expecting to be called away soon into service for Uncle Sam. "Smilage at Home" was the theme of the evening. The guests assembled at 6:30 and were ushered to the dining-room where they partook of a five course banquet. The food was daintily served and thoroughly delicious—nor was the spice of glowing conversation lacking, except during the violin selections played by Miss Regina and Master Joseph Malloy two of Clearfield's talented young musicians.

At the close of the banquet various members of the party were called upon for impromptu speeches, the last number on this after-dinner program being the extemporaneous production of a modern novel, to which all were allowed to contribute. A number of wit-taxing and mirth-provoking games in the living room concluded the evenings' festivities.

The four guests of honor were Messrs. De Forrest Truman, Mark Lansberry, Theodore Pischke, and V. C. Frenberg and doubtless the embryonic soldiers have stored one more thing in their memories which will help keep them happy during days to come in camp or trench.

GERMANY NEEDS COAL VERY BADLY

Soldiers Are Given Leave to go

By Henry Wood
With the French Armies, Feb. 16—By Mail—The coal crisis in Germany this winter has reached such an acute seriousness, that the Imperial German command has found it necessary to cut down to the minimum limit the permission for soldiers at the front to visit their families in the hinterland in order to decrease the railway traffic.

That the coal shortage is as great as to threaten the outcome of the war is admitted in an order issued by Grand Quarter Master General Ludendorff copies of which have just been taken from German prisoners captured by the French.

Under these new orders issued by Ludendorff it is impossible for a German soldier to secure a "permission" oftener than once a year. Military authorities of all the belligerents concede that nothing tends to keep up the morale of a soldier more than regular "permissions" to visit his home and family at the rear, and conversely that nothing is more damaging to the fighting morale than to have these "permissions" curtailed. In the French army at the present time, the "poulu" has his "permission" every four months and special trains carry him to and from his home.

According to accurate calculation, this order, permitting leaves of absence to only 3 to 5 per cent. of the German troops at a time, means that each soldier can have a home leave only once a year.

FORESIGHT OF DRIVER SAVED TOTS' LIVES

Whenever an automobile driver hits a pedestrian we always hear of the affair and the resultant "blame" generally places the blame—rightly or otherwise—upon the shoulders of the "poor devil" driving the car. The many times the same misguided driver may have succeeded in avoiding an accident that would have been directly chargeable to the person injured never appears to get in print or is given public notice. It is the purpose of this little article to reverse this order in just one case and give honor where honor is due.

A serious and perhaps fatal accident was narrowly averted on Daley street yesterday afternoon only by the vigilance, presence of mind and prompt action of Curtis Wentz, driver of one of the Fulington jitney buses. As his bus was making one of its regular trips down Daley street yesterday afternoon two kids waited on the curb near the corner of Eighth street and just as the big bus reached them darted out into the street to cross to the other side.

The driver saw the children as he approached and thought they were waiting until he could get by, but was horrified to see them dart out right in the way of the oncoming machine. It was then too late to sound a warning or even hope to escape a calamity, but with a wrench at the wheel he slid the front wheels across the brick and ran his car over the curb across the walk into the terrace wall in front of the Kennedy property at that point.

It was a nerve-racking experience and eye-witnesses to the near-accident, all of whom were loud in their praises of the excellent judgment and prompt action of the driver.

Parents should impress upon their children the danger of running across the street directly in the path of oncoming automobiles and thus assist in averting a possible tragedy.

MASON'S DAILY WAR REVIEW

By J. W. T. Mason

Written for the United Press

New York, March 20.—Efforts by the Germans to tempt the western Allies into starting a premature major offensive this spring have begun.

The Germans themselves have ceased to engage in extensive raids. They are abandoning occasional trench positions and are not making a strenuous defense against French and British and American raiders. By these tactics the German general staff hopes to create the impression that the German morale is giving way and that an early spring drive by the Allies would meet with large success.

In reality, von Hindenburg realizes that impudence to deliver this year's blow against the German west front might, indeed, result in no more than a moderate victory for the allies not worth the cost. For the first time since the war began the western Allies are in a position through the supreme war council at Versailles, to strike together against the Germans. This co-ordination if properly used ought to give the Allies an enormous advantage. But, it will be thrown away if an impatient demand arises to strike at the Germans before everything is ready.

There is no advantage in trying to outpace the Germans. The initiative at the west front is now passing into the hands of America, France and Great Britain. It is they who are in the real position to force events whenever they desire. It is believed von Hindenburg knows his and he is trying to tempt the Allies into moving before they have made full preparations.

It is impossible to believe that the generals in the field can be fooled by any such situation. But, public opinion at home must be taken into consideration in determining problems of major strategy. The time has come therefore with the beginning of spring, when home opinion should guard itself against falling into the snare of impatience. Public opinion in democracies, sometimes has force. Army commanders into terrible blunders. The home morale is now of vital importance. It should not show weakness at delays in attack which may be necessary to make victory certain at the end.

KENTON MAY BE UNOFTOSED

Des Moines, Ia., March 21.—"Who's Who" in the Democratic line-up for State, congressional and other offices to be filled at the coming election, is expected to be pretty well determined at the state conference in this city today. Because of Senator William S. Kenyon's patriotic support of the national administration, the Democratic State Central committee has decided to recommend that no candidate be placed in the field against him.

DO YOU RIDE THE BUMPS?

Do you ride all the bumps of the war news from day to day? Many good patriots do. Each morning brings its passing changes in the war situation; now gloom in the form of a setback on the western front, or further disintegration in Russia, or rumors of delay in our own war preparations. Next morning, like as not there will be something of a hopeful nature, such as the checking of the Hun's drive in Italy, or a raid by the British or French, or good news heard at home.

To follow and feel all these glows and glooms from day to day is human and exciting.

But it involves much useless wear and tear of the spirit.

There is another viewpoint—that disregarding the daily shifts and changes in the war situation, keeping one's attention concentrated on the long haul of war and the final result.

That haul is still a long one. For Germany is not beaten yet, but the results are sure, because we have right on our side, and also the largest battalions. If you grow warm and then cold, and alternate between enthusiasm and depression with the daily news changes, you not only waste your energy, but are likely to fluctuate in your policy as a business man and your determination as a patriot. The good resolution to save food, support Uncle Sam financially and cheerfully, adjust your business and habits to the war program will be stiffened on the morning that you read about some Hun atrocity against our own soldiers in France. But in a week there may be news of a different character, which leads you to let down a little, on the assumption that Germany has begun to crack and that the war is about over.

It is good business, good patriotism and good conservation to forget most of the headlines in the morning paper and concentrate strictly upon the long, hard grind between today and the final result. That will save your spirit, buck up your resolution, and enable you to do your utmost in winning the war.

Moreover, it will enable you to get out of the war, as a business man and a patriot, the utmost benefit from war adjustments. Those adjustments make for wiser and more economical personal habits, as well as a business grounded in sound economy.

Even should peace come tomorrow you can never go back to the old headless wasteful ways either in business or livelihood.

Don't ride the bumps of the war news!

PERFECT ORGANIZATION TO SELL LIBERTY BONDS

Experts in Various Lines Are at Work in Philadelphia Headquarters.

The organization for handling the forthcoming Liberty Loan in the Third Federal Reserve District has been completed. Philadelphia is the headquarters for this district, which embraces Eastern Pennsylvania, Southern New Jersey and all of Delaware.

The Women's Committee also has headquarters in Philadelphia, under the supervision of Mrs. James Starr, Jr.

This organization already is marked by some revolutionary departures from former systems. The changes incorporate a more gigantic program for securing publicity, and a system for securing orders for bonds which will greatly facilitate the work for the banks and will make it possible to handle a much greater number of subscriptions in a limited time.

In Mr. Parsons' office are maps of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, divided into sub-districts by heavy blue lines. The areas thus enclosed represent more than fifty districts, which come under the supervision of the Philadelphia headquarters. In most cases the districts are counties, but in some cases a district takes in more than one county, while in others a county is divided into two or more districts. On the maps are various printed cards bearing the names of the local chairmen, the amount of money subscribed for each district in the last loan, the quota for the coming loan and other information.

There is a generous sprinkling of red-headed ticks all over the maps, signifying localities where banks will handle subscriptions for local county organizations. The charts show at a glance the make-up of the various committees and the descriptions of their work. That chart for the regular district organization shows at the top, in a square, the words "Treasury Department," indicating the fountain source of all the work of the loan. Beneath this comes the Federal Reserve Bank, next the Central Committee, and then the Director. The chart shows that associated with the Director is an Advisory Committee, and underneath are various committees, the work of which interlocks.

While the Women's Committee reports directly to the Treasury Department, there is a close working arrangement between it and the office of Director Parsons. The separate chart for the Women's Committee shows, beneath the square for the Treasury Department, the chairman of the women's organization, who is Mrs. James Starr, Jr. There also is an Advisory Board, then an Executive Committee and various sub-committees. Mrs. Walter S. Thompson is in charge of the work in Philadelphia.

Mr. Parsons, in announcing his tentative organization, said:

"It is our desire to have our organization throughout the entire Third Federal Reserve District so perfected that in the campaign for the placing of the Loan, each worker will know his duties and be able to work at 100 per cent efficiency from the first day of the campaign. It is the thought at Washington that by having this permanent organization, which will in a way hold together the volunteer sales organization, the concentrated drive will be conducted smoothly and systematically, and far better results will be accomplished."

DIRECTOR PARSONS TELLS WHY THE LOAN WILL BE SUCCESSFUL

LEWIS H. PARSONS.

Lewis H. Parsons, director of the Liberty Loan for the Third Federal Reserve District, gave out the following statement from his office in the Lincoln Building, Philadelphia:

"We are ready to go 'over the top' and make a killing for the Loan. In our trenches and back of our lines great preparations for the big drive are under way.

"Success is sure, but it will not come easily. All good Americans must apply themselves to the task of helping to raise this money as they never before have applied themselves to anything. The government needs the help of every individual now more than ever before. There must be no slackers. No one should depend upon some one else to make up his share. Every one must do something.

"The first thing we should all get firmly implanted in our minds is the seriousness of the situation. We are fighting a most powerful war machine. To overcome it, we must make almost superhuman efforts. And we cannot do this great task at all without money. That is the first need. So every one who is not fighting with his hands must fight with his money—that is, must buy Liberty Bonds.

"Nothing could do the government more harm than the peace talk which we hear, and even see printed, on all sides. The time to talk and think of peace is after we are victorious. Our government is preparing for a long and bitter war. The only way to shorten it is to supply the money now so that we may have the equipment for our soldiers, the ships and food and all those things which are necessary to win.

"This is a great, patriotic opportunity for all of us to pull together and show the rest of the world how American can rise to a situation. We must put into bonds all the money we can spare. Even if we have not the ready money, but have credit, we should use our credit to raise money with which to buy bonds. The way to do this is to borrow money in the bank now, for us to consider the possibility of a default. That would mean paying over to an auctioneer, power whatever that power saw fit to exact of us. Surely there is a decided difference between doing that and lending our money now to Uncle Sam at a good rate of interest. I know the people will wake up to the situation, and that is why I am sure the third Liberty Loan drive will be a great success."

AND THE HUNS SANG

In a war book written about the engagements around Malines and Camperhout appears this incident:

A child of two came into the street as eight drunken soldiers were marching by. A man in the second file stepped aside and drove his bayonet into the child's stomach. He lifted the child into the air on his bayonet and carried it away, he and his companions still singing. The child screamed when the soldier struck it with his bayonet, but not afterwards.

Commenting upon the incident, Bruce Barton, editor of Every Week, writes:

"I do not often ask you to read unpleasant paragraphs. I do it now because, when it comes to writing about Liberty Bonds, I feel like throwing aside all the fine words and telling you the whole truth as it appeals to me.

"And the truth is that I am not buying a nickel's worth of bonds to give Trieste to Italy or one single added colony to England or Alsace-Lorraine to France.

"I buy Liberty Bonds because there is a two-year-old boy in my home—as there was in that nameless home in Malines.

"And because—so small has the world become—Malines is only just across the street from where I live.

"Prices are high. It is hard these days for a man with even a good income to buy food and clothes for his family.

"But I ask myself over and over again, what good to my youngsters are food and clothes, if the spirit that fired Malines comes out of this war unbroken?

"What sort of parents are you and I if we take care of the minor matters, such as food and clothes, and send our children out into a world where children may still be bayoneted and women ruthlessly slain?

"So long as they who bayoneted the child of Malines go singing through the streets of Belgium, there must be Liberty Bonds.

"So long as the terror that stalked through Camperhout continues to hang over my house, there must be Liberty Bonds.

"I do not know how it may be with you; but with me, this third Liberty Loan cuts down through the luxuries into what we used to think were necessities in our household.

"And we make the sacrifice gladly, for the sake of the great necessity.

The following are culled from a series of slogans submitted by the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World:

If you know anything Germany would like to know, let this be your speediest day.

Keep your eyes peeled, your heart steeled, your lips sealed—don't talk! Your little private may lose a battle. Don't tell all you know.

One German army has already occupied America—the invisible host of spies is everywhere. Don't talk!

Swat the fly! Spot the spy! Spies lead upon little crumbs of conversation. Little glances of observation. Starve them out!

Don't tell all you know to people you don't!

Keep your eyes open. Report suspicious persons who ask curious questions. There are many ways in which the enemy can be exposed. Don't let him get away. Keep a sharp lookout!

At a regular meeting of Washington Camp No. 588 P. O. S. of A., of Olanta the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas It has pleased God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our order so soon after uniting our worthy brother Russell Levine, he it therefore Resolved We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family of the deceased brother in their bereavement and that they be commended to trust in the divine Father who looketh down with mercy upon all who believe in him.

Resolved That a good man never lives in vain but leave behind him a living example of good deeds and kindly acts to his fellow men.

Resolved That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our order and that they be published in two county papers and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family; and that our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hacking, rattling, mucous discharge, headache, drowsiness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

We've Never Shown As Pretty Dress Gingham At 25 Cents The Yard

When Miss Curley bought these gingham she said, "We'll show some of the prettiest dress gingham this spring we've ever shown—scarcity or no scarcity, they're beautiful!"

Well, the gingham came and Miss Curley's judgment couldn't be questioned. Every piece—the plain colors; the stripe effects; the pretty plaids in red and blue, lavender and white and a host of other color combinations—reflects the brightness of spring. These early showings are made for the special service of the home dressmaker. You can make your purchases now and do your sewing during your spare hours before the real warm weather comes.

FARMER BULWARK OF THE NATION

Takes His Time to Think It Over,
Then Gets to Work in Earnest.

Now, as in every grave emergency through which the nation has passed, the farmer looms large as the bulwark of the nation.

It is realized on all sides that the source of wealth, and the good old-time respect for our national institutions and our national integrity, must come, as they have always come in the past, from the soil.

In the days of ancient Rome, when the very life of the republic was at stake, Cincinnatus left his plough, placed himself at the head of the army, and, after winning victory, calmly returned to his rustic pursuits.

It is stated officially by persons in authority in the third Liberty Loan campaign that the rural districts are expected to subscribe to more bonds, in proportion to population, than the urban districts. This is said as the results of preliminary reports received from district chairmen. These reports show that the farmers have made excellent profits during the last season, that they have saved their money, and that they are in a mood to put it where it will do the most good—into Liberty Bonds.

There is, after all, a distinct difference between the resident of the farming district and the city resident. The city man is used to spending his money as fast as he makes it. He looks after his immediate wants first and then thinks of the rainy day. The farmer thinks of the future first of all. He knows that his money has been earned by the sweat of his brow and that he has none to spend foolishly. And, too, he is so close to nature and solitude that he has time to think of the more serious things of life. Thus the peril that the government faces is much more real to the farmer than it is to the average city dweller, because he knows it affects his home and fields and very life, and is not merely a headliner in the paper to be forgotten as soon as read.

In the Revolutionary war and in the Civil war, success would not have been impossible if the farmer had not come forward, not only with recruits and crops, but with his hard-earned and ungrudgingly offered money. There will not be any exception now. It is a case of the tiler of the soil rising in his might against the predatory powers which would violate the home and make a joke of the home ties and traditions.

When the third Liberty Loan was being talked of, it was assumed that the campaign would begin on the first of March. But the date was deferred until the sixth of April. Few persons know why this was so. But one of the principal causes was the farmer. It was felt that he would appreciate having the loan drive occur after the weather had cleared up. This would make it possible to have meetings in the farming sections, to send speakers to get the folks together and give them the same advantages as the city folks enjoy in any large undertaking.

Watch the farmers. They have the money to spend. They know exactly why it should be spent to aid the government. And they are, as a class, so imbued with the patriotic spirit, that their showing in the Loan is bound to be sensational.

Every $100 Liberty Bond will furnish one six-inch shell, one rifle, thirteen gas masks and two hand grenades. Put a $100 in a Bond and send "the goods" to our Boys!

Four $100 Bonds will buy a machine gun. Thousands of such guns are needed to stop the Big Hun Drive! Do your bit with your Bond!

It takes $10,000 to buy just one six-inch gun. That's one hundred $100 Bonds. How much of the gun can you buy? Get your quota to work today!

A five-ton truck costs Uncle Sam $5,000. Pile up the Bonds and buy your spoke in the wheel!

Every $50 Bond will make one six-inch shell. Hurl one at least, at the Hun!

SPORTSMEN ATTENTION!

A meeting of all hunters and sportsmen generally will be held in the Arbitration room Friday evening, March 22nd, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of hearing reports on the matter of the killing of dogs running deer on the mountains north of town, from the committee appointed at the recent meeting to take up the matter of securing Ringneck pheasants and eggs for propagating purposes in the county and for the further purpose of having a game warden appointed for Clearfield county.

The committee appointed to secure pheasants got into communication with the State Game Commission and received a letter from Secretary Kalbfus yesterday afternoon in which he agrees to furnish ten pairs of birds and two hundred eggs just as soon as the names of persons who will agree to receive and take care of same is supplied him.

This meeting is called for the purpose of finding places to locate these birds and all interested are requested to attend this meeting.

The matter of the selection of a Game Warden for Clearfield county is an important one and will also be acted upon at this meeting and all hunters are requested to be present and have their say on this subject.

Wash poison from system each morning and feel fresh as a daisy.

Every day you clean the house you line in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul, lives in also becomes filthy up each twenty-four hours with all manner of fifth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone, whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Wesley Lansberry, the West Side drayman, and Miss Gladys Dixon, the well known trained nurse, of East End, are receiving congratulations from their host of warm friends on their marriage which took place at Washington, D. C., on Thursday, March 14th, by Rev. Harry Mitchell, a Methodist pastor of the capital city. The happy couple were married at the home of Miss Gertrude Dixon, sister of the bride, who had been living in Washington for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Lansberry spent the intervening two days sightseeing in and about the national capital and on the Saturday following were present at the marriage of Miss Gertrude Dixon to Mr. Glenn Rankin, of Indiana, which second wedding ceremony was also performed by Rev. Harry Mitchell. The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dixon of East End and possess a host of warm friends in Clearfield who with both couples a long life of happiness together. Mr. and Mrs. Lansberry returned home Sunday evening and are "at home" at their home on Merrill street. The Progress joins in congratulations.

It is said that there are some 3,000 suit manufacturers in New York City alone. Yet it is a fact that most merchants in smaller towns and cities buy from a single manufacturer to simplify ordering and to take up less of their time in the collection of their stocks when in the market. The great objection to this, of course, is that their customers are offered the fashion trend as it is seen by a SINGLE designer; many other fashions are overlooked.

Our buyers on their Spring trip inspected the full lines of some fifty of the best reputed suit manufacturers. No wonder some women have actually complained that there are so many pretty styles here it's hard to determine on which is MOST BECOMING.

Here are suits that point out the advantage of not confining our market; in our search we located a line of serge suits at $27.50 that are unquestionably the peers of others selling at a higher price. As often happens, this particular manufacturer could offer us something unusual at this low price; others excelled him in suits of a different nature. Full silk lined; excellently made.

Spring coats are not like they used to be—far from it! There is none of that stiffness and plainness that becomes a bore to the youthful woman. Here are coats that actually seem to breathe forth Springtime. Colors are beautiful—styles striking. In a word, such as you will "fall in love" with at first sight.

Materials are serges, tweeds, coverts and velours as well as others; set off in a host of ways. Some through the manner of their own designs. Excellent workmanship from beginning to end.

Though there have been called to the colors, many thousands of young men from factory and farm, and though some manufacturers have turned the entire product of their factories over to the government, we are maintaining the completeness of our stocks and our value-giving reputation by searching the markets carefully and by selecting the kind of goods demanded by this store's clientele. Next week means another lap in the course of the new season. We are steady on our own, straight road that will bring utmost satisfaction to every one of our friends.

HOSPITAL BRIDGE MEETING

Miss Edna Johnson was hostess at the Hospital Bridge Club meeting yesterday afternoon which was held at her home on Second street.

The meeting was most delightful. There were four tables of bridge and one of five hundred in play during the afternoon. Mrs. Andes held the highest bridge score and Mrs. Banks Smith the five hundred score. They were awarded the usual prizes.

Seven dollars and seventy-five cents was realized.

Mrs. Frank Powell left today for her home in Clarion after spending a few days here with Mrs. S. C. Stewart.

A Clear Complexion

Don't imagine it's all a matter of diet and what not. Your skin must be properly fed and cleansed just as your body.

A. D. S. PEROXIDE CREAM
This cream will go right in to the little skin pores and dig out the dirt. Won't injure the delicate tissues but rather nourishes, improving the texture which in turn brings its reward in a clear, peachy skin.
